MR. BLAIR AT REST

Borne to the Grave by Life
Long Friends.

YESTERDAY'S FUNERAL RITES

They Were Simple But Impressive.
Many People Pay Last Respects to James Blair's Manhood.

The funeral of the late James Blair was held yesterday at 2 p. m., from the family residence, No. 156 Trowbridge street. The services were conducted by Dr. S. H. Cobb and were simple, as had been requested by the family, but very impressive.

Before the hour for the funeral, hundreds of friends of the deceased had congregated at the residence to pay for their last time their respects to one of the ablest and best men the city has ever known. The remains lay in a closed casket in the front parlor, and were viewed for the last time by the family before the funeral services were begun. The floral decorations were simple, yet elaborate; those on the casket consisting of a bunch of Calla lilies and a bouquet of roses. Several floral pieces, chiefly of roses, were at the foot of the bier.

At the Residence.
Dr. Cobb opened the services with a brief prayer, which was followed by "There is a Land of Pure Delight," by Mrs. E. M. Davis and Mrs. O. Pearson. Dr. Cobb then read the twenty-third Psalm and first Corinthians, second chapter. After a prayer in which the sterling qualities of Mr. Blair as a public officer and private citizen were briefly extolled, "Lead Kindly Light," was sung as a duet, and the benediction was pronounced. The casket was then borne out by Willard Kingly, Jacob Kleinhaus, Henry Spring, J. B. Pantlind, Dr. G. K. Johnson and A. D. Rathbone. The remains were followed to the Valley City cemetery, where the burial took place, by a large number of personal friends and relatives of the deceased. At the grave Dr. Cobb pronounced the solemn service and the remains were lowered to their last resting place.

The Kent county bar and the board of education, of both of which Mr. Blair was a member, attended the funeral in a body, as did the officers and attaches of the Fourth National and Kent county banks and the Grand Rapids Fire Insurance company and members of the Street Railway company.

Bar Resolutions.
When the adjourned meeting of the Kent bar association met yesterday morning, Mr. Butterfield reported the following resolutions:

"Whereas, by the sudden death of our friend and brother James Blair has been removed from our midst, and we as members of the bar of Kent county, assembled in public meeting, desire as a body to express our affection for him, our respect for his memory as a lawyer and citizen, and our sympathy with his bereaved family; therefore, be it

Resolved, That by his professional courtesy, his unquestioned integrity, his wide knowledge of affairs, his faithfulness in important trusts committed to his charge, his fidelity to his clients and his capacity for the liberal and intelligent application of the principles of the law to matters of business, he has honored the profession of the law and the bar of which he has been so long a prominent member, and won and maintained the sincere respect of his brothers of the law.

"Resolved, That in his death the state at large and especially the city of Grand Rapids loses a citizen who by his public spirit, his wise counsel, his liberality and his conscientious discharge of his duties as a citizen, and especially in services to the educational and reformatory institutions of the state, deserves the gratitude of all good citizens.

"Resolved, That in his death we mourn a man who not only should be honored for the position which he occupied in the profession of the law, and as an honored citizen in our community, but one who by personal qualities won and maintained our confidence and regard. Firm in his friendships, kindly in his bearing, immovable in his integrity he was most loved and honored by those who knew him best.

"Resolved, That we tender to his bereaved family who have been deprived of a loving husband and father, our heartfelt sympathy.

"ROGER W. BUTTERFIELD,
"J. W. CHAMBERS,
"MORRIS T. LAUGHLIN."

Honors in Courts.

After reading the resolutions, Mr. Butterfield briefly eulogized Mr. Blair. He was followed by N. A. Fletcher, Judge Champion and Moses Taggart. On motion of E. F. Uhl, the resolutions were adopted.

The following committees to wait upon the different courts and tender the resolutions were announced:
Circuit Court—Fred A. Maynard, T. J. O'Brien, the Hon. E. F. Uhl and J. C. Fitzgerald.
Superior Court—N. A. Fletcher, the Hon. W. J. Stuart, W. W. Taylor and M. M. Houseman.
Federal Court—John S. Lawrence, M. J. Smiley, the Hon. George W. Thompson and the Hon. Peter Duran.
Supreme Court—The Hon. J. W. Champion, the Hon. A. B. Morse, the Hon. L. D. Norris and R. W. Butterfield.

The school board met in Secretary Stein's office yesterday at 1 o'clock, and President Fisher appointed Trustees Hunsicker, Stevens and Hagy to draft resolutions to be presented at the next meeting of the board on the death of ex-President James Blair.

The committee of directors of the Grand Rapids Insurance company appointed to prepare resolutions on the death of Mr. Blair, prepared suitable resolutions on his death.

WANTED NO NOTORIETY.

A "Plain Drunk" Jumped His Ball
Bond.

Some weeks ago H. A. Sterling of Alpena was arrested for being drunk. He told a plausible story of what he was worth and the fine farm he owned. He begged that the matter be kept from the paper, and said he would come right back the next morning and pay his fine. Police Court Clerk Stevens was persuaded to release him on his own recognizance, and that was the last seen of him. The warrant, however, has been kept on file ready to serve the first time he appeared on the streets of this city. He has not been seen here, and yesterday the warrant was placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff.

HE QUEEKED HIMSELF.

Nick Smith Tells How He Found a Box.

Nicholas Smith stood trembling before Judge Haggerty yesterday charged with stealing the pocketbook of a friend with whom he had been drinking. Nick had a nice story fixed up about the pocketbook, but he did not know the name of the prosecuting attorney's knowledge of his affairs. He looked surprised when the attorney asked him what he was doing with a box of woman's white skirts in his room. He said he found them in an alley, but soon admitted that he took them from a basement on Monroe street. He said the door was open and he helped himself. Nick was held for trial at the present term of the superior court.

WAS HIS FIRST ARREST.

Clinton Worden Charged With Stealing a Coat.

Oh, Clint! My boy, my boy; I have done all I could for you, but you would go in bad company," was the exclamation of Mrs. Worden as she saw her young son hustled by two officers into the cell room in police headquarters yesterday afternoon. Clinton Worden and Cornelius Delius are accused of stealing an overcoat from Good Templar hall a few evenings ago. Delius was arrested last week for stealing lumber from Berkey & Gay's dry kiln, and his father paid $26.85 to get him released. Worden has never been arrested before and his mother was nearly prostrated with grief at his disgrace.

FLANDERS GETS TWO YEARS.

Officer Tatroe's Assistant Goes to Iowa Prison.

Abraham Flanders was called before Judge Burlingame yesterday for sentence. He was convicted of resisting an officer and the extreme penalty for that offense is two years imprisonment. Judge Burlingame expressed regret that he could not make the sentence double the two years. Flanders was evidently surprised at the sentence, for he had been in so many fights that he did not look upon the breaking of Officer Tatroe's head as a serious offense.

LEONARD'S CASE GOES UP.

To the Supreme Court by Certiorari Proceedings.

The Leonard case will go to the supreme court on a writ of certiorari. The writ has been secured, and Attorney N. P. Allen served it on Judge Adair and the custodian of the records in the case about 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

Glasford Gets Nine Months.

E. A. Glasford of Benton Harbor, charged with making false returns from a postoffice, was sentenced yesterday to nine months in the Detroit house of correction. His wife, charged with using postage stamps unlawfully, will be sentenced January 10. She thought postage stamps were legal tender and used them for the purchase of goods. In order to make the deficiency good in the postoffice her husband made false returns.

Let Him Off Easy.

Luther J. Bennett, who was convicted in the United States court two weeks ago on a charge of withholding a pension claim from his mother-in-law, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Severens to six months in the Montcalm county jail for six months. Bennett had made restitution of the money taken to the amount of $1,800; he was therefore let off very easy. The court sentenced him to six months in the Montcalm county jail.

Nicholas Smith, larceny from the person; held for trial. Frank Landers, larceny; sentence deferred. Margaret Cook, soliciting females; held for trial. Stella Hathaway, larceny; county agent. August Schierma, larceny; referred to county agent.

Minor Court Notes.

Meuser Livingston of Charlevoix, convicted of embezzling postal funds, was sent to the Detroit house of correction by the United States court yesterday for two years. He was ordered to pay a fine of $10.

A motion to quash the information in the case of the people vs. J. J. Lyons, charged with forgery, was argued in the superior court yesterday morning and will be decided today.

The examination of Margaret Cook charged with being a procuress, was closed in police court yesterday. She was held for trial at the present term of the superior court.

E. S. Shepard paid $100 in cold cash into the hands of the clerk of the United States court yesterday because he violated Uncle Sam's revenue laws.

The circuit and superior courts adjourned yesterday on account of the Blair funeral.
